General Price List

Our Legacy of Service . . .

Our family-owned and operated business began in 1885 with our founder, L. A. Muhleisen. Offering of quality services at the best value is the cornerstone on which we were founded. The continuation of that belief has led to our success as the leading funeral service firm in this area . . . your assurance that we will be here tomorrow to help your family.

A Word About our Funeral Directors and Professional Staff . . .

L. A. Muhleisen & Son's reputation for caring, quality service stems from the dedication of our professional staff. Our directors and professional staff are experienced at guiding you carefully and compassionately through each step of the arrangement process, answering every question, offering suggestions, providing help in personalizing the service, giving you the freedom to create the perfect goodbye and helping you meet your every need through the service and afterwards, to assure your complete satisfaction.

Saying Goodbye . . .

It's never easy, but saying goodbye is a natural and healthy part of the grieving process. At our funeral home this can take place in a number of ways. From a more traditional ceremony joined by family and friends, to a private, meaningful service with your immediate family. Regardless of how you want to say goodbye, our professional staff is ready to serve.

Sharing the Story . . .

A caring parent, a lifelong friend - every life has a story to tell. Our staff will help you share that story in a unique and appropriate way. We believe in celebrating the life of the individual by recognizing how they touched the lives of others. This is the story that we all have to share.

You Have Choices . . .

L. A. Muhleisen & Son offers a complete selection of funeral services and merchandise, not dependant on size, budget or beliefs. If there is an element or item you wish to include in the funeral service that is not listed in this General Price List, please don't hesitate to discuss it with a funeral director. We will do our very best to ensure any wish can happen, as we are committed to providing exactly what you and your family desires.

Value Added Packages . . .

Offer you the benefit of simplicity of choice and substantial savings. We have included all service expenses involved in the funeral, except those provided by others.

Most commonly:

- ✧ Certified Copies of Death Certificate - Louisiana Vital Records charges $9 for the first copy and $7 for each additional copy,
- ✧ Clergy Honorarium - Most clergy humbly accept an honorarium, some ask that no gift be made at all, while others ask that a contribution be made to the church. Accordingly, your decision to give a contribution is a personal one. Your funeral director can guide you in the process,

- ✧ Newspaper - The fee to run a death notice in the Times-Picayune - The New Orleans Advocate is based on the number of days that the notice appears. There is no additional charge to include a photograph or symbol. L'Observateur and The St. Charles Herald Guide also charge to run an obituary. We can assist with preparing and placing the obituary in these or any other newspaper of your choice,
- ✧ Cemetery - Cemetery charges for the interment, (opening and closing the grave, vault, tomb or crypt) and inscription vary according to each cemetery and type of interment,
- ✧ Florals - Prices vary according to the type of flower, arrangement and the quantity selected. Flowers have played an important role in funeral customs because of their fragrant beauty and comforting qualities and they remain as one of the most beautiful ways to express our condolences when words fail us. There are many fine florists in our area that meet these needs, and
- ✧ Police Escort - Some jurisdictions provide an escort at no charge as a public service and others consider this to be a paid detail and impose a fee. The Jefferson Parish Sheriff's Office and the New Orleans Police Department both charge for this service. We can assist with contacting the police department(s) with jurisdiction and request an escort on your behalf.

When Arranging a Funeral . . .

If you have any financial concerns at all, please discuss them with our staff who will explain what elements of the funeral process might have the greatest effect on the end cost. Be assured of our pledge to you, that whatever decision you make regarding any funeral, we will provide the same exceptional level of service and care that has made L. A. Muhleisen and Son the preferred funeral service provider of many metro area families.

Payment Policy . . .

Payment is expected at the time of the arrangement conference. In keeping with that, we offer several payment options for those we serve. Payment options include: cash, check, credit card, (Visa, MasterCard and Discover - a 3% convenience fee is added to all credit card transactions), Prepaid Funeral Plan Funds, and/or irrevocable assignment of proceeds of a verified insurance policy. Our staff offers assistance in filing insurance claims. With very few exceptions, insurance companies allow the beneficiary to assign all or a portion of the policy's proceeds to the funeral home to be used towards funeral expenses. In these cases, the insurance company will write two checks, one to the funeral home in an amount authorized and approved by the beneficiary, and the second to the beneficiary for the balance of the proceeds.

L. A. Muhleisen and Son

Preplanning is the right thing to do and we are the best way to do it.®
